Dear Sirs

Kaupthing Singer & Friedlander Limited (In Administration)
Notice To Creditors Of Intended Dividend
(Pursuant To Rule 2.95 Of The Insolvency Rules 1986)

I intend to declare a first interim dividend in the Administration. I have reason to believe that you may be a creditor of the Company, but to date I do not have a record of receiving your claim.

The creditors of the Company may lodge proofs of their debt with me at the above address up to 18 June 2009 ("the last date for proving") quoting the name of the Company and the reference above. The Insolvency Claim Form that you need to complete to submit your claim was forwarded to you under cover of the Joint Administrators' letter of 17 April 2009. Copies of the form are also available from the Company's website at www.kaupthingsingers.co.uk. If you do not prove your debt by the last date for proving you may be excluded from the dividend which I intend to declare within a period of two months from that date.

I am aware that if you are a retail depositor of the Company, you may have submitted a claim to the Financial Services Compensation Scheme ("FSCS"). Please note that if you have received compensation in respect of your deposits with the Company from the FSCS then you will not be entitled to claim for these amounts in the Administration. However, if you have submitted a claim to the FSCS and it has not yet been processed, or if you have not yet submitted a claim to FSCS or do not intend to do so, you are entitled to make a claim in the Administration. Submission of a claim in the Administration will not affect your eligibility to make a claim to the FSCS, but any distributions you receive from the Administration will need to be taken into account when the FSCS calculates the amount of compensation payable to you. For further information, please visit the FSCS website at www.fscs.org.uk. If you have any questions about your claim to FSCS, please contact them directly on 020 7892 7300.

Should you have already received payment from the FSCS then you need take no further action in respect of this letter. Your name will be removed from the schedule of creditors for the Company in due course, to ensure that you do not receive further correspondence.

Please note that if you have submitted your claim within the last few days then you do not need to take any further action. Should you have any queries regarding this letter please contact the helpdesk on the number given above.

Yours faithfully
for Kaupthing Singer & Friedlander Limited

P J Brazzill
Joint Administrator

Encl. Notice of Intended Distribution.

Notice of Intended Dividend
In the Matter of the Insolvency Rules 1986
And
Kaupthing Singer & Friedlander Limited
(In Administration)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to Rule 2.95 of the Insolvency Rules 1986 that the Joint Administrators in this matter intend declaring a first interim dividend to preferential and unsecured creditors who are required on or before 18 June 2009, being the last date for proving, to submit their proofs of debt to the undersigned and if so requested to provide such further details or produce such documentation or other evidence as may appear to the Joint Administrators to be necessary. A creditor who has not proved his debt before the last date for proving is not entitled to disturb, by reason that he had not participated in it, any dividend subsequently declared.

Should you wish to submit a claim the enclosed Proof of Debt form and documentation in support of your claim must be sent to the Joint Administrators.

The dividend will be declared within the period of two months from the last date for proving.

Dated: 20 May 2009

P J Brazzill
Joint Administrator
